Jessica lives in London. She is twelve years old and she goes to a secondary school. Her favourite subjects are Geography and Maths. She likes Science, too. She hates French and History. She goes to her school with her friends by bus. They meet at the bus stop at a quarter past eight. School starts at a quarter to nine and finishes at half past three. After school she goes home and she does her homework. Then she meets her friends in the park. They play volleyball or rollerblade there. In the evening Jessica watches TV and surfs the internet. She practices the clarinet too. On Wednesdays, she doesn't go home at half past three. She plays table tennis in the school gym. She isn't very good at it, but it's fun. She likes sport. On Saturday mornings Jessica has a clarinet lesson. Then she usually plays cricket with her friends in the garden. Jessica has got a brother. His name is Cameron. He is ten.
